UTR1.104 - THE SIR CONDOR LAUCKE TROPHY

Background

A. In 1983, Sir Condor Laucke donated $750 to the University to endow the trophy he had presented annually for many years to the most outstanding sportsperson at Roseworthy College.

B. Up until 2002 one trophy has been awarded to the most outstanding sportsperson, but in 2017 as second trophy was introduced to allow the annual award of a trophy to one female and one male sportsperson.

C. The University accepted the donation upon the trusts specified by the donor and the donation therefore became the capital subject to those trusts ('capital sum').

Name of the fund

1. The capital sum, all income arising from the capital sum and any accumulations and additions thereto together form a fund called ‘The Sir Condor Laucke Trophy’ (‘fund’).

Investment of the fund

2. The fund is to be amalgamated for the purposes of investment, and held in a common fund, and the net income earned by the common fund shall be credited, rateably, to the funds so amalgamated and thereafter distributed according to the wishes of the donor.

Obligations

3. In administering the fund, the University must adhere to the terms specified and is obliged:-

   (a) to invest the capital sum according to the directions of the donor; and

   (b) to establish a prize and trophy in the manner described in the following Rules.

Rules

This is an endowed prize with the capital held in the University’s Endowment Fund¹ and the income distribution each year used to fund the prize.

Name of Award

Sir Condor Laucke Trophy for the most outstanding sportsman/sportswoman at the Roseworthy Campus.

¹ For further information on the University’s Endowment Fund and the distribution of interest available please see the Endowment Fund Investment Report

28 April 2017
Nature of Award

Two Trophies valued at approximately $60 each, or such other amount as the University shall from time to time determine provided that the combined value of the trophies does not exceed the annual distribution of interest available from the Endowment Fund.

Current Selection Procedures

One trophy will be awarded annually to a female student at the Roseworthy College deemed to be the most outstanding sportswoman. One trophy will be awarded to a male student at the Roseworthy College deemed to be the most outstanding sportsman. The winners will be selected by The Manager, Student Services (Roseworthy) in consultation with student representatives and leaders from the Roseworthy Residential College.

Variations

The University may vary the rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University’s legal obligations and policies.
