Whereas the Honourable Mr Justice Howard E. Zelling has paid to the University the sum of $2,000 for the purpose of establishing a prize in the subject Constitutional Law, the following rules are hereby made:

1. The prize shall be known as ‘The Howard Zelling Prize for Constitutional Law’.
2. The value of the prize shall be $500.
3. Provided that, in the opinion of the examiners, there is a candidate of sufficient merit, the prize shall be awarded annually to the candidate or candidates placed highest in the primary assessment for the subject Constitutional Law.
4. These rules may be varied from time to time but the title and general purpose of the prize shall not be changed.

Rules updated 6 May 2014.
