Whereas Doreen A Saunders has paid to the University the sum of $3,000 for the purpose of establishing an annual prize to commemorate the memory of Professor David A.L. Saunders, Professor of Architecture 1977-86, and to encourage the study of the history of architecture.

Awarded to the student of the Bachelor of Architectural Design who submits the most outstanding essay or achieves the highest aggregate of marks in the first year course History Theory 1 (DESST 1505).

The value of the prize shall be $500.00.