UTR1.172 - THE CHARLIE MARTIN PHILOSOPHY PRIZES

A. From 2009, Anne Martin (‘donor’) has generously provided funding for two prizes in Philosophy in memory of her father, Charlie Martin, a distinguished member of the Philosophy Department at the University of Adelaide between 1954 and 1966.

B. An amount was invested into the University’s Endowment Fund and the income is used towards the payment of two prizes each year in Philosophy. The donor also continues to provide funding each year towards these prizes.

C. The University accepted the donation upon the trusts specified and the donation therefore became the capital subject to those trusts (‘capital sum’).

Name of the Fund

1. The capital sum, all income arising from the capital sum, and any accumulations and additions thereto together form a fund called ‘The Charlie Martin Philosophy Prizes’ (‘fund’).

Investment of the Fund

2. The fund is to be amalgamated for the purposes of investment, and held in a common fund, and the net income earned by the common fund shall be credited, rateably, to the funds so amalgamated and thereafter distributed according to the trusts specified by the donor.

Rules

The following conditions apply:

The C B Martin Prize for Level One Philosophy

1. The prize shall be called ‘The C B Martin Prize for Level One Philosophy’.
2. The value of the prize shall be $500, unless otherwise determined by the Faculty.
3. The prize shall be awarded each year to the beginning student who achieves the highest average mark in their two best level one philosophy courses. Only students who have completed at least two level one philosophy courses are eligible.
4. If two or more candidates are deemed to be of equal merit, the prize shall be divided equally between them.

The C B Martin Prize for a Philosophy Major

1. The prize shall be called ‘The C B Martin Prize for a Philosophy Major’.
2. The value of the prize shall be $500, unless otherwise determined by the Faculty.
3. The prize shall be awarded each year to the philosophy major who achieves the highest average mark in the philosophy courses they have completed.
4. If two or more candidates are deemed to be of equal merit, the prize shall be divided equally between them.
