UTR1.173 - MASTER OF HEALTH PSYCHOLOGY PRIZE

This Prize was been established by the School of Psychology and the School of Medicine, Discipline of Psychiatry, which offers the conjoint programme, Master of Psychology (Health).

As of 2014, this Prize is being offered by the School of Psychology for the Master of Psychology (Health).

Value
The value of the Prize will be $200 until otherwise determined.

Eligibility
The prize will be awarded annually to the candidate placed first in the combined Year 1 and 2 summative tasks of the Master of Psychology (Health).

Selection of Candidate
The successful candidate will be identified by the Board of Examiners. If the Board of Examiners deem that two or more candidates are of equal merit, the prize shall be divided equally among the candidates. If there is no candidate of sufficient merit then the prize will not be awarded.

Variations
The University may vary the rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the original objectives of the prize but the title of the prize shall not be changed.
