UTR1.209 - THE E. HAROLD DAVIES PRIZE

Background –

A. In 1947, the sum of £400 (subsequently increased to £500)*, raised by private subscription, was paid to the University of Adelaide for the purpose of founding a scholarship or prize to commemorate the work of E. Harold Davies, Mus.Doc., F.R.C.M., who for twenty-eight years was Elder Professor of Music and Director of the Elder Conservatorium. He founded the Adelaide Bach Society and the South Australian Orchestra and was responsible for the creation of the Australian Music Examinations Board.

B. This is a prize for organ or classical keyboard instrument at the Elder Conservatorium.

C. The University accepted the donation upon the trusts specified by the donor and the donation therefore became the capital subject to those trusts (‘capital sum’).

Name of the fund

1. The capital sum, all income arising from the capital sum and any accumulations and additions thereto together form a fund called ‘The E Harold Davies Prize’ (‘fund’).

Investment of the fund

2. The fund is to be amalgamated for the purposes of investment, and held in a common fund, and the net income earned by the common fund shall be credited, rateably, to the funds so amalgamated and thereafter distributed according to the terms of the Prize.

Obligations

3. In administering the fund, the University must adhere to the terms specified and is obliged:-

(a) to invest the capital sum according to the directions of the donor(s); and

(b) to establish a prize in the manner described in the following Rules.

Rules

The E Harold Davies Prize is administered according to the following Rules:-

Value

The value of the Prize will be $1,000 per year, or such other amount as the Director of the Elder Conservatorium shall from time to time determine but such amount shall not exceed the annual income distribution from the Endowment Fund each year.

Eligibility & Selection of Candidate

The prize will be awarded on the recommendation of the Director of the Elder Conservatorium to an organ student or a student of a classical keyboard instrument at the Elder Conservatorium, however preference shall be given to a student of organ.
If there is no candidate of sufficient merit in a given year then the prize shall lapse for that year.

If there is more than one candidate of sufficient merit, then the prize shall be shared equally.

Variations
The University may vary the rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University’s legal obligations and policies.
