Whereas the sum of $2,250 has been subscribed and paid to the University for the purpose of founding a lectureship and medal in the memory of the late Dr Charles Gosse, and whereas there is no longer a need for separate funding support for the Dr Charles Gosse Lectureship, the following rules are hereby made:

1. The prize shall be called ‘The Charles Gosse Medal and Prize for Ophthalmology’ and shall be a medal and the sum of $2,200 (or as otherwise determined by the Executive Dean).
2. The prize will be awarded as an ophthalmic research prize to an undergraduate medical student who is undertaking research within the Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Adelaide. The prize will be awarded annually at the discretion of the Executive Dean, Faculty of Health Sciences following the recommendation of the Chair of Ophthalmology. The prize will be judged on a substantial amount of written material that may be suitable for publication in medical and/or scientific literature.
3. The prize may not be awarded every year if it is deemed there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
4. These rules may be varied from time to time but the title and the purpose of the endowment shall not be changed.

Rules amended and approved 2 September 2014