UTR1.32 - THE SIR ROBERT CHAPMAN PRIZE

Whereas the University has received the sum of $600 subscribed by former students of Sir Robert William Chapman, first Professor of Engineering and for fifty years a teacher at the University, for the purpose of founding a prize in his honour and memory, it is hereby provided as follows:

1. There shall be an annual prize to be called ‘The Sir Robert Chapman Prize’.
2. The value of the prize shall be $300.
3. An annual prize shall be awarded to the student in the Bachelor of Engineering who has most distinguished himself or herself during that year in the Level I Engineering courses in the program, provided that no award shall be made unless the student is of sufficient academic merit.
4. Where two or more candidates are of equal merit, the prize shall be shared equally.
5. If in any year no award is made, the prize for that year shall lapse.
6. These rules may be varied from time to time, but the title and general purpose of the prize shall not be changed.

Rules updated and approved 20 August 2014