Whereas Sydney Russell Booth has paid to the University the sum of £500 for the purpose of founding, with the income thereof, a prize in memory of his wife, to be called the ‘Anna Florence Booth Prize’, the following rules are hereby made:

1. A prize to be called ‘The Anna Florence Booth Prize’ shall be available annually.
2. Until the Faculty decides otherwise, the value of the prize shall be $800.
3. Provided that in the opinion of the examiners the thesis is of sufficient merit, the prize shall be awarded on the recommendation of the Head of the School of Psychology for the best thesis in psychology which addresses a social problem in the wider community, and which has been submitted during the year by a candidate for the degree of Master of Applied Psychology or Master of Psychology (Clinical).
4. The prize shall not be awarded twice to the same person.
5. These rules may be changed from time to time but the title and general purpose of the prize shall not be changed.
