Whereas the late Mabel Shorney on behalf of her family bequeathed a sum of money (£1,000) for the purpose of perpetuating the memory of her late brother Herbert Frank Shorney, Lecturer in Ophthalmology from 1926 to 1933, the following rules are hereby made:

1. A postgraduate prize, to be known as ‘The Shorney Prize’, of the value of $1,500, shall be awarded to a candidate who, in the opinion of the examiners is making the most substantial contribution to knowledge in ophthalmology.
2. The prize will be awarded to a candidate who is undertaking ophthalmic research in the Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Adelaide that is either being submitted or published in peer review and/or scientific journal.
3. The award of the prize will be at the discretion of the Executive Dean of the Faculty of Health Sciences on the recommendation of the Chair of Ophthalmology.
4. The prize may not be awarded every year if it is deemed there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
5. These rules may be varied from time to time but the title and the purpose of the endowment shall not be changed.

THE SHORNEY MEDAL AND EUGENE ABRAHAM MATISON PRIZE

Whereas a sum of money (£500) has been given to the University by Miss M. Shorney for the purpose of perpetuating the memory of her brother and whereas a sum of money has also been given by Mrs E.A. Matison for the purpose of establishing a prize in memory of her husband, the following rules are hereby made:

1. The award shall be called the Shorney Medal and Eugene Abraham Matison Prize.
2. The prize shall be a medal and a sum of $90 and shall be awarded annually in December at the discretion of the Board of Examiners upon the advice of the Lecturer in Charge of Otorhinolaryngology and the Chairman of the Department of Surgery to the candidate who, having passed the Fourth Year Examination for the degrees of Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery, submits the best essay on Otorhinolaryngology.
3. These rules may be varied from time to time but the title and purpose of the endowment shall not be changed.
