Whereas the late Honourable Sir Herbert Angas Parsons, K.B.E., LL.B., from 1921 until his retirement in 1945 one of His Majesty's Judges of the Supreme Court of South Australia, a graduate of the University, a member of the Council from 1915, Warden of the Senate from 1927 and Vice-Chancellor from 1942 until his death in 1945, has bequeathed to the University the sum of £1,000; in commemoration of Sir Angas Parsons' services to the University and in order to encourage the advanced study of law, the following rules are hereby made:

1. There shall be a prize called ‘The Angas Parsons Prize’.
2. The value of the prize shall be $900.
3. Provided there is a candidate of sufficient merit, the prize shall be awarded annually to the candidate who is considered by the examiners to be the most meritorious of those qualifying for the Honours degree of Bachelor of Laws.
4. These rules may be varied from time to time, but the title and general purpose of the prize shall not be changed.

Rules updated 6 May 2014.
