UTR1.76 - THE H.K. FRY MEMORIAL PRIZE FOR PSYCHOLOGICAL MEDICINE

Background

A. Whereas the late Dr Henry Kenneth Fry has bequeathed to the University the sum of $1,000 to be administered as follows:—

“To the UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE the sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS (£500.00) for the purpose of establishing a prize either in Psychological Medicine or within the scope of studies to be conducted by the proposed Department of Anthropology (provided that such Department shall be formed within the period of three years from the date of my death).

I DIRECT that the Council of the said University shall have the absolute discretion to decide (and from time to time vary) the following matters:—

(a) whether the prize shall be in Psychological Medicine or whether the scope of the studies to be conducted by the Department of Anthropology.
(b) whether it shall be awarded annually or periodically.
(c) Whether it shall be awarded on the results of some examination normally conducted by the Faculty concerned or on the results of a special examination.
(d) generally the terms conditions and rules governing the award and all matters incidental thereto.”

A. The University accepted the bequest upon the trusts specified by the donor and the bequest therefore became the capital subject to those trusts (’capital sum’).

Name of the fund

1. The capital sum, all income arising from the capital sum and any accumulations and additions thereto together form a fund called ‘The H K Fry Memorial Prize for Psychological Medicine’ (’fund’).

Investment of the fund

2. The fund is to be amalgamated for the purposes of investment, and held in a common fund, and the net income earned by the common fund shall be credited, rateably, to the funds so amalgamated and thereafter distributed according to the trusts specified by the donor.

Obligations

3. In administering the fund, the University must adhere to the terms specified and is obliged:—

(a) to invest the capital sum according to the directions of the donor; and
(b) to establish a prize to be administered according to the following rules.

Rules

1. The prize shall be called ‘The H.K. Fry Memorial Prize for Psychological Medicine’.
2. The value of the prize shall be $500.

15 June 2016
3. The prize shall be awarded annually to the student in the final year of the medical program who gives the best presentation on a psychiatric topic which is undertaken as a component of the Sixth Year Psychiatry attachment; provided that the candidate is regarded by the Board of Examiners as being of sufficient merit.

Rules updated and approved 23 January 2015
Rules updated and approved 16 January 2013