UTR1.82 - MOOTING PRIZES

The University of Adelaide offers a prize of $1,000 for a competition in Moots.

Originally, an amount of $50 was provided to the University of Adelaide in 1972 by The South Australian Barr Association for a prize for a competition in Moots.

The following rules are hereby made:

1. There shall be a prize called “The Mooting Prize for the Best Moot Team.”

2. The prize shall be awarded annually to the team that participated in mooting competitions organised by the Adelaide Law School. The mooting coordinators shall provide nominations each year to the Prizes Committee for consideration.

3. The Adelaide Law School Prizes Committee will determine the recipients of the prize on advice from the mooting coordinators.

4. The value of the prize will be $1,000.00 per annum which shall be shared equally among the qualifying students.

5. These rules may be varied from time to time, but the title and general purpose of the prize shall not be changed.
