UTR2.273 – THE CRAWFORD FUND

Background –

A. The Crawford Fund was established when Professor James Crawford through the Crawford Family Trust provided a generous donation of $100,000 to the University of Adelaide in February 2010.

B. The express wish of Professor Crawford is for the fund to be used as per the rules outlined below.

C. The University accepted the donation upon the trusts specified by the donor and the donation therefore became the capital subject to those trusts (‘capital sum’).

Name of the fund

1. The capital sum, all income arising from the capital sum and any accumulations and additions thereto together form a fund called ‘The Crawford Fund’ (‘fund’).

Investment of the fund

2. The fund is to be amalgamated for the purposes of investment, and held in a common fund, and the net income earned by the common fund shall be credited, rateably, to the funds so amalgamated and thereafter distributed according to the trusts specified by the donor.

Obligations

3. In administering the fund, the University must adhere to the terms specified and is obliged:-

   (a) to invest the capital sum according to the directions of the donor; and

   (b) to apply the funds in the manner described in the following Rules.

Rules

1. There shall be a fund (the Crawford Fund) for the support of international law teaching (including mooting) and research at the Adelaide Law School.

2. The net income of the fund shall be applied as follows:-

   a. for the support of the James Crawford Lecture in International Law;

   b. otherwise for the support of teaching (including the participation of students of Adelaide Law School in international law mooting competitions) and research in international law within the Adelaide Law School; and

   c. for the maintenance of the Law Library’s printed and electronic resources in international law.
