UTR2.45 - THE KENNETH AND HAZEL MILNE TRAVELLING SCHOLARSHIP IN ARCHITECTURE

Background –

A. In 1958 Frank Kenneth ‘Ken’ Milne (‘donor’) gave to the University of Adelaide a sum of £5,000 (‘donation’) to establish a postgraduate travelling scholarship in Architecture.

B. Ken Milne was a very successful architect, particularly in the domestic field, but also with some noteworthy commercial building to his credit. From his early years, having experienced severe restrictions with money, Ken Milne felt that students should have enough money to live reasonably comfortably while they studied. He also felt that they should have the benefit of travelling widely to develop their skills and tastes, both of which had been denied him. As a result, in October 1958 the Kenneth and Hazel Milne Travelling Scholarship in Architecture was established.

C. Ken Milne died on 3 October 1980 and under the terms of his Will dated 22 June 1977 bequeathed a pecuniary legacy of $4,000 to the University to be administered in the following manner:-

‘TO THE COUNCIL OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE the sum of FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS ($4,000) to be used for the same purposes and on the same conditions as has been provided by me in relation to the gift made by me during my lifetime to the University of Adelaide for the purpose of establishing the Kenneth and Hazel Milne Travelling Scholarship in Architecture.’

D. The University accepted the donation and bequest upon the trusts specified by the donor and the donation and bequest therefore became the capital subject to those trusts (‘capital sum’).

Name of the fund

1. The capital sum, all income arising from the capital sum and any accumulations and additions thereto together form a fund called ‘The Kenneth and Hazel Milne Travelling Scholarship in Architecture’ (‘fund’).

Investment of the fund

2. The fund is to be amalgamated for the purposes of investment, and held in a common fund, and the net income earned by the common fund shall be credited, rateably, to the funds so amalgamated and thereafter distributed according to the trusts specified by the donor.
