

UTR1.170 - ELLICE RUTH AND HORST LUCKE PRIZE FOR COMPARATIVE LAW

Background

- A. In 2008, Mrs Ellice Ruth Lucke generously offered to endow a prize for the Adelaide Law School by donating $5,000, to be invested by the University and the annual interest used to fund a prize for the highest achiever in the undergraduate Bachelor of Laws course Comparative Law.
- B. In July 2015, Mr Horst Lucke generously donated $1,500 to be added to the capital sum thereby increasing the endowed amount (now including interest accrued) to a total of $10,000.
- A. The University accepted the donations upon the trusts specified by the donors and the donations therefore became the capital subject to those trusts ('capital sum').

Name of the fund

1. The capital sum, all income arising from the capital sum and any accumulations and additions thereto together form a fund called the 'Ellice Ruth and Horst Lucke Prize for Comparative Law' ('fund').

Investment of the fund

2. The fund is to be amalgamated for the purposes of investment, and held in a common fund, and the net income earned by the common fund shall be credited, rateably, to the funds so amalgamated and thereafter distributed according to the wishes of the donor.

Obligations

3. In administering the fund, the University must adhere to the terms specified and is obliged:-
 - (a) to invest the capital sum according to the directions of the donor; and
 - (b) to establish a prize to be administered in accordance with the following Rules.

Rules

Title

1. The prize shall be known as the 'Ellice Ruth and Horst Lucke Prize for Comparative Law'.

Value

2. The value of the Prize shall be $600 or such other amount as the University shall from time to time determine provided that the value of the prize does not exceed the annual distribution of income available from the Endowment Fund.

Eligibility

3. To be eligible for the prize candidates must have been undertaking the Bachelor of Laws program in the year for which the Prize is awarded.

4. Candidates are ineligible if they:-
- have provided false or misleading information that has a relationship to the awarding of this Prize;
 - have been found guilty of misconduct by the Student Misconduct Tribunal and have had relevant penalties imposed on them in accordance with the University's Policies, Rules and Statutes for Student Misconduct.

Selection of Candidate

5. The Prize shall be awarded annually to the candidate who obtained the highest mark in any of the following courses:-
1. LAW 2508 - Comparative Law;
 2. LAW2567 Biodiversity Study Tour
 3. LAW3505 Aboriginal People and the Law
 4. LAW3538 International Law Study Tour
 5. LAW3601 International Law Study Tour B
- as determined by the Dean, Adelaide Law School, and a sub-committee appointed by the Dean.
6. If the Prize is not awarded in any year, then the available income distribution shall be added to the capital sum in the Endowment Fund.
7. If there is more than one candidate of equal merit, preference may be given to the candidate who is deemed the most outstanding candidate taking into consideration aptitude, enthusiasm and participation as determined by the Dean, Adelaide Law School.

Administration and Variations

8. The Prize will be administered by the Coursework Scholarships and Prizes Office.
9. The University may vary the rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University's legal obligations and policies.
10. The University reserves the right to withdraw the Prize if the Student Misconduct Tribunal has found the student guilty of misconduct and imposed a relevant penalty, including, but not limited to, having provided false or misleading information that has a relationship to the awarding of this Prize in accordance with the University's Policies, Rules and Statutes for Student Misconduct.
11. Once the Prize has been withdrawn for that year, it may be re-awarded to the next eligible student at the discretion of the School and subject to available funding.
