

Course Readings: changing viewing dates

Introduction

By default, items and sections within a reading list will be viewable by students throughout the semester (generally two weeks before classes start until after the exam period). However, you can hide access to sections or items by changing the viewing dates.

Procedure

Change dates for a section

1. Click on the ... icon next to the section name and select Edit section from the drop-down menu.

2. Click on the calendar icon next to Start date and select the date as required. Do the same for the end date.

3. Tick the Section visible only during these dates box.
4. Click on SAVE.

Change dates for an item

1. Click on an item heading to view its details.
