

THE UNIVERSITY of ADELAIDE

Service Catalogue

The University
of Adelaide
Library

2020

adelaide.edu.au/library

Introduction

The University Library Service Catalogue lists a wide range of user-facing services and resources available to University students, researchers, staff and other users of the library

Expert information management advice and support

Expert advice and support for the discovery of information resources

Expert advice and support for the management of unique collections

Facilities and spaces

- Support and individual consultations tailored to research or information literacy
- University recordkeeping (Content Manager TRIM) support including training, licensing and centralised file creation through to disposal
- Advice, advocacy, and support for Copyright, including permission requests
- Advice, advocacy, and support for Open Access, regarding the University's research outputs
- Preservation and archival storage of University records and research data
- Advice for University wide information management governance and the Information Management (IM) policy
- Advice concerning information privacy

- Access to an extensive range of online and physical collections including borrowing and requesting
- Reference services to assist users in finding and accessing the information they need
- Information literacy skills development for current and future students
- Access to learning materials for students and support of academics via Course Readings
- Document delivery including interlibrary loans and digitisation requests
- "Suggest a purchase" recommendation for print/electronic/streamed media

Expert advice and
support for the discovery
of information resources

- Access to unique collections including provision of reading room services, exhibitions, displays, and tours
- Preservation and storage of unique collections across all campuses
- Access to the archival records of the University, including provision of the reading room services and online catalogue/digitisation access
- Preservation of and access to University research outputs in the institutional repository
- Curation of quality metadata within the Institutional repository
- Reference services to assist users in finding and accessing the information they need

Expert advice and
support for the management of
unique collections

- 24 hour study space (Barr Smith Library only)
- Individual and group study spaces
- Lounge style study-break seating area
- Rooms to accommodate meetings, seminars and workshops
- Computers, iPads, printers and photocopiers
- High quality Zeta and flat-bed scanners as well as large format scanning