Strategic vision

“The University of Adelaide will become no less than Australia's most distinctive university, set in Australia's most civilised of cities...”

Professor Warren Bebbington
Vice-Chancellor and President, University of Adelaide.

The University of Adelaide is one of Australia's leading research universities.

We are committed to delivering high quality learning and research outcomes.

There are five faculties: Engineering, Computer and Mathematical Sciences; Health Sciences; Humanities and Social Sciences; Professions and Sciences and five research institutes.

Degrees are offered at undergraduate and postgraduate levels with postgraduate including course work and higher degree by research.

Campuses

The University has four campuses in South Australia.

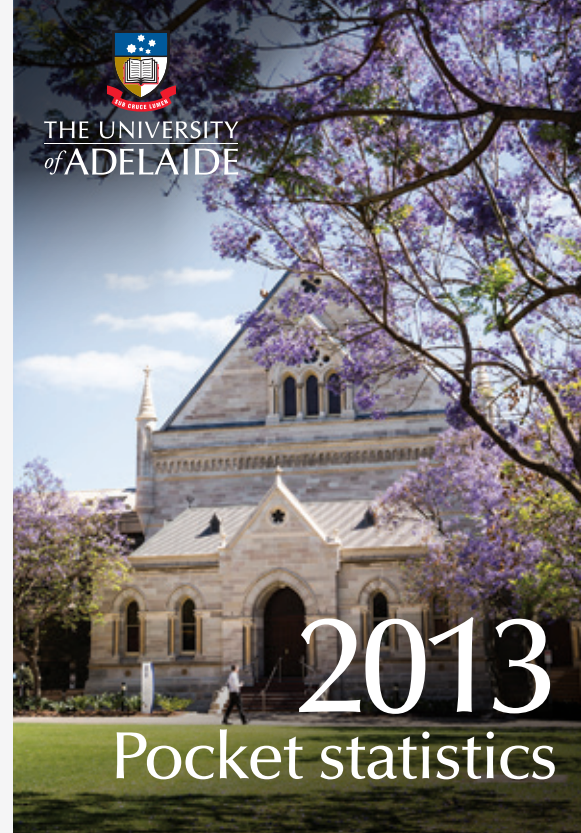

North Terrace, in the cultural heart of the city of Adelaide, is the main campus and site of most teaching and research facilities.

Waite at Urrbrae is the largest agricultural sciences research complex in the Southern Hemisphere, with many co-located government and industry partners.

Roseworthy, 50km north of Adelaide is the site of the University's School of Animal and Veterinary Sciences.

Thebarton hosts one of Australia's premier technology/research parks.

The University also offers a range of programs in Singapore through the Ngee Ann-Adelaide Education Centre, a partnership with the Ngee Ann Kongsi.
