CONSIDER CENTRAL CITY LIVING

If your degree will be based at our North Terrace campus (including our Adelaide Medical School buildings) or Waite campus, we encourage you to consider the value of being located in Adelaide’s central business district (CBD).

In addition to enjoying a vibrant cosmopolitan lifestyle, your close access to the city’s free tram and bus network will help you save significant time and money.

Central city living also puts you on the doorstep of Adelaide’s premier shopping, dining and recreational precincts. These include the Rundle Mall and Rundle Street retail strips, Gouger Street cafés and restaurants, the Leigh and Peel Street bars, Chinatown and Adelaide’s iconic Central Market.
Managed by the University of Adelaide, The Village is situated conveniently in Adelaide’s dynamic CBD. The Village offers you a vibrant, secure and well-balanced lifestyle—helping to make your study with us the time of your life, and providing the perfect platform for academic success. Make no mistake, how you live affects how you study. At The Village, you’ll live to succeed.
THE VILLAGE IS THE LARGEST OF OUR UNIVERSITY-MANAGED STUDENT ACCOMMODATION OPTIONS, HOUSING OVER 400 UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE STUDENTS
ABUNDANT MULTICULTURAL FOOD

Adelaide is one of Australia’s most cosmopolitan cities, with a vast array of cafés, restaurants and shops reflecting the diversity of its ethnic communities—and staying at The Village places you right in the centre of it.

Just a short 5-minute walk away is Adelaide’s popular Central Market, where you can buy a huge range of fresh and healthy market produce, including fruit, vegetables, meat and seafood. Located right next-door to Central Market is Chinatown, where you can access an abundance of food options, mostly of Asian persuasion, from a variety of food courts, specialist supermarkets and affordable restaurants.

This precinct’s close proximity gives you the choice of buying ingredients to prepare your own meals, which you can share with a friend or your entire household. Alternatively, during exam periods or when assignments are due, it gives you an abundance of quick and delicious eat-in options.

Directly behind Chinatown, and still only minutes from The Village, is the Gouger Street café strip, where you can enjoy warm summer nights and cosy winter evenings in the company of good friends and housemates over coffee or a pot of tea.

ALL THE COMFORTS OF HOME

The Village offers a superior living experience to other contemporary student accommodation options. You can choose to stay in a fully-furnished 5-bedroom townhouse or a 4-bedroom apartment, both of which come with generous common living spaces, and large, functional bedrooms decorated with warm and happy colours.

You can also select between having your own private bathroom, or—the more affordable option—sharing one with another student of the same gender. The spacious common kitchens come complete with a large fridge, electric cooktop, oven and kettle. And an on-site laundromat offers secure access to commercial-capacity washing machines and dryers operated by smart card technology.
The Village offers the convenience of a free door-to-door shuttle service for residents, making it easy for you to get to lectures. The shuttle operates 11 times a day, Monday to Friday, and connects residents to the University’s main campus and two Adelaide Medical School buildings, all on North Terrace. Seats are limited and must be booked in advance.

Village residents also have access to a free city connector bus and inter-campus bus service, which operates from North Terrace campus and will return residents to The Village after hours.

And if you secure an accommodation place at The Village in your first year of study, you’ll be eligible for a complimentary airport pick-up (when booked in advance).

PRIVATE RENTAL ACCOMMODATION IS THE MOST AFFORDABLE OPTION IN ADELAIDE BUT IT CAN BE THE HARDEST TO SECURE AND DIFFICULT TO SETTLE INTO.
PRIVATE RENTAL ACCOMMODATION
(including share accommodation)

We encourage you to consider a University-managed student accommodation option in your first year of study prior to seeking private rental accommodation. This will give you time to settle into your academic routine, get used to our public transport network, identify your ideal location and amenities, and find a landlord committed to your safety and wellbeing.

Know what your getting

Although you may have easy access to a wide range of online platforms through which you can arrange private rental accommodation in advance, you should be aware that most of these sites are unregulated. This means they are being provided outside the local government framework put in place to protect both your interests (as tenant) and the landlord’s.

If you are looking to find private rental accommodation, including share accommodation, we encourage you to:

- book only temporary accommodation for when you arrive in Adelaide, and give yourself plenty of time to inspect a number of rental properties before making a selection
- access the University’s rental database— at adelaide.edu.au/accommodation—to view options from providers associated with our University community
- do not commit to a private rental option unless it’s underpinned by a written agreement and you will receive a receipt for all payments, including security bonds.

Remember, the University of Adelaide Accommodation Service is available to help you make a well-informed decision about accommodation prior to arriving in Adelaide.

Rental Accommodation Checklist

- Consider a managed student accommodation option for your first year.
- Research rental accommodation availability via the University of Adelaide Rental Database.
- Establish your rental accommodation budget including rent+utilities+transport.
- Arrange temporary accommodation for your arrival in Adelaide
- Arrive in Adelaide and begin your search for rental accommodation.
- Visit the Accommodation Service on North Terrace campus for helpful hints and the latest market updates.
- Inspect a minimum of three properties before making a decision on a rental accommodation option.

AVOID making a financial commitment to share or rental accommodation without viewing the room/property first.

- Secure rental accommodation with a contract and receipts for all payments.

NO CONTRACT = NO RULES – NO RIGHTS
Searching for permanent housing in a new country can be difficult, distracting and at times overwhelming. But securing University of Adelaide-managed accommodation in advance avoids all that. It’s easily done from wherever you call home; and our dedicated Accommodation Service team is ready to help in any way you need.

Arriving in Adelaide
Another advantage of choosing to secure accommodation in a University-managed facility in your first year is that you’ll be eligible for a complimentary airport pick-up service. Keep in mind, though, that you will need to book it in advance.

You can also book our airport pick-up service if you’re not staying in University-managed accommodation, of course, just for a small fee. You can arrange it through our Accommodation Service as soon as you’ve confirmed your flight arrival information and accommodation destination, and the pick-up fee must be paid at the time of booking.

But rest assured, if you’ll need to make your own way from the airport, that’s easy too. It’s only a 20-minute taxi ride into the CBD, and taxis are readily available at the designated taxi rank—located to your left as you exit the main terminal.

Welfare monitoring
International students who are offered (and eligible for) direct entry into a University of Adelaide undergraduate program while still under 18 years of age may enter into a Welfare Monitoring Agreement. If this is the case for you, you’ll be required to live in University-approved accommodation so that we can ensure you receive the extra care and attention you need.

You’ll be offered the option of living at Urbanest at the University of Adelaide (with no meal provision) or with a homestay provider (with a meal provision).

To apply
If you’re eligible for welfare monitoring you won’t have to lodge a separate application. You will receive information pertaining to your approved accommodation options with your offer of academic admission.
