Since its establishment in 1874, the University of Adelaide has developed a reputation for excellence in teaching, learning and research. From the start, the University has been one of Australia’s most progressive institutions. It was the first Australian university to grant degrees in science, the first to establish a Conservatorium of Music and the first to admit women to academic programs—in 1881.

At the University of Adelaide you will be studying in an environment that pursues excellence, values creativity, welcomes cultural diversity, and gives its graduates the opportunity to become global citizens.

Study areas include:
- Agricultural Sciences
- Architecture and Urban Design
- Arts and Humanities
- Commerce, Business and Management (including MBA)
- Criminology
- Dentistry and Oral Health
- Economics, Finance and International Trade
- Education
- Engineering (Aerospace, Architectural, Chemical, Civil and Environmental, Civil and Structural, Electrical and Electronic, Mechanical, Mechatronic, Mining, Petroleum, Pharmaceutical, Sports, Software, Sustainable Energy)
- Environmental Policy and Management
- Food and Nutrition Science
- Health and Medical Sciences
- Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- International Development and International Studies
- Languages
- Law
- Mathematical and Computer Sciences
- Media Studies
- Medicine
- Music
- Nursing
- Psychology
- Social Sciences
- Veterinary Bioscience
- Viticulture and Oenology

There are also university preparation and pathway programs including foundation studies, degree transfer, and diploma programs available at our affiliated colleges, plus pre-enrolment English programs at the University’s English Language Centre.

Consistently ranked in the top 1% of universities worldwide.

With over 140 years of educational experience, the University of Adelaide is one of Australia’s most prestigious universities.

Since its establishment in 1874, the University of Adelaide has developed a reputation for excellence in teaching, learning and research. From the start, the University has been one of Australia’s most progressive institutions. It was the first Australian university to grant degrees in science, the first to establish a Conservatorium of Music and the first to admit women to academic programs—in 1881.

At the University of Adelaide you will be studying in an environment that pursues excellence, values creativity, welcomes cultural diversity, and gives its graduates the opportunity to become global citizens.

Our programs are underpinned by innovation and relevance and taught by high-quality staff who are national and international leaders in their fields.

University of Adelaide facts

~ 8
Member of the Group of Eight

~ 5
Associated with five Nobel prize winners

~ 109
Produced 109 Rhodes scholars

~ 3rd
Oldest University in Australia

~ 160
Exchange partners

~ 150,000
Alumni living in 80 countries worldwide

~ 137
Produced 137 Fulbright scholars

~ 6,500
International students
Adelaide and South Australia

Why you will love Adelaide

- Ranked as the world’s 5th most liveable city (Economist Intelligence Unit Liveability Ranking).
- Affordable city with the lowest cost of living of all the mainland capital cities.
- Attractive, safe and well planned city.
- Easily accessible city with free public transport available in the city centre.
- Student discounts on public transport (bus, train and tram) throughout the city and suburbs.
- Multicultural city with people from over 200 different countries of origin.
- Wide range of activities and attractions including: festivals, beaches, nature and the outback.

Nature

Adelaide has conservation areas and national parks only minutes from the city that are perfect for bushwalking, picnics and spotting native animals. Take scenic walks at Waterfall Gully and Morialta, or visit Cleland Wildlife Park to see koalas and other fauna.

Shopping

In the city centre, Rundle Mall has a variety of department and chain stores, while Rundle Street is known for its trendy boutiques, restaurants and cafes. In the suburbs, visit King William Road in Hyde Park, Norwood and Harbour Town.

Outback

The Flinders Ranges possess some of the world’s oldest fossils and ancient Aboriginal stone carvings. See the huge cliffs and whale breeding grounds of the Great Australian Bight, and underground residences in Coober Pedy.

Beaches

Adelaide has many great metropolitan beaches; most are no more than 30 minutes from the city centre and are easily accessible by public transport. South Australia has hundreds of unspoilt beaches, and activities to suit everyone.

Apply online

For further enquiries

The University of Adelaide
SA 5005 Australia
Telephone: +61 8 8313 5208

Online enquiries: www.international.adelaide.edu.au/enquiries/

---

DISCLAIMER: The information in this publication is current as at the date of printing and is subject to change. You can find updated information on our website at adelaide.edu.au. With the aim of continual improvement the University of Adelaide is committed to regular reviews of the degrees, diplomas, certificates and courses on offer. As a result the specific programs and courses available will change from time to time. Please refer to adelaide.edu.au for the most up to date information or contact us on 1800 061 459. The University of Adelaide assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of information provided by third parties.