Education that enlightens

Studying with South Australia’s highest ranked university—consistently placed among the world’s top 1%—equips students to be tomorrow’s leaders.

Having learnt from, and with, teachers and researchers who are themselves international leaders in their fields, our graduates are highly regarded and professionally recognised around the globe. What’s more, they’re well prepared to take advantage of the opportunities this recognition can bring; with a complementary emphasis on practical career skills, we’re also the state’s leading university for graduate employability*.

Our long and proud tradition instils confidence in our students. We are Australia’s third-oldest university and have a history of excellence in education spanning more than 145 years.

We are distinguished by a commitment to equality and an ongoing focus on delivering outstanding research for the benefit of society. The University has played key roles in many of the world’s important discoveries and advancements, and our alumni have contributed significantly to shaping the educational, political and social arenas of their day.

At the University of Adelaide, students are taught, supported and inspired to be everything they can be.

* QS Graduate Employability Ranking 2020.
Welcome to the Faculty of the Professions, where putting ‘leading thought into leading practice’ is our guiding principle. Study with us and you will emerge as a career and world-ready graduate through:

- learning and teaching underpinned by world-class research
- structured study pathways that prepare you to achieve external professional accreditation
- a business school and centre awarded international accreditation from the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) *
- outstanding development program and support networks
- real-world, experience-building internships
- horizon-expanding exchange programs and tailored study tours.

* AACSB accreditation is a hallmark of excellence in business education. It has been earned by less than five per cent of the world’s business schools.
Executive Experience study tours
Available as an undergraduate or postgraduate elective, our Executive Experience study tours will enable you to take a transformational leap in personal and professional development. Conducted in Sydney over the course of a week, you’ll learn from experts in multiple fields—everything from building personal brands to effective networking, communication and presentation, dining etiquette, business protocol, cultural awareness, and even professional styling. You’ll be given exclusive opportunities to visit top organisations, attend high-level networking and panel sessions with industry professionals, and gain insight from the Sydney School of Protocol.

Go global with us
The University of Adelaide has links with a number of leading international universities, giving you the opportunity to study overseas and have it count towards your degree. Ranging from 10 days to three weeks, study tours are organised by the University of Adelaide, with participating students accompanied by University staff. Past tours have taken place in Europe, South America and Asia.
Many are partially subsidised by the University or Australian Government, and you may be also eligible for an OS-HELP loan to part-fund your participation. Tours are run in University holiday periods during summer and winter school, and earn credit for up to two courses.

Scholarships

BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS
Professional accreditation

The Adelaide Business School and its Entrepreneurship Commercialisation and Innovation Centre are accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). With only the world’s top 5% of business schools earning the honour, this is the hallmark of business education excellence.

Our commitment to engagement and entrepreneurial excellence is also recognised on a global scale—we are the only university in the world to receive dual accreditation for these qualities from the international Accreditation Council for Entrepreneurial and Engaged Universities (ACEEU).

In addition, many of our undergraduate business courses have met the competence area requirement for CPA Australia and Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand (CA ANZ).

Women in Economics program

Supporting our female economics students, the Women in Economics career development program regularly hosts distinguished guests for events like panel presentations, networking, seminars, workshops, mock scenarios and meetings. To read the latest about the program, visit: facebook.com/uaWomenInEcon

Graduate Career Readiness course

Developing the skills and competencies expected by today’s employers, our Graduate Career Readiness course will enhance your competitive employment advantage and ability to achieve your career goals.

You’ll attend a number of hosted industry site visits, enabling you to familiarise yourself with contemporary workplaces and network with potential future employers. You will also gain valuable insight from industry guest speakers on leadership, creative thinking and presentation skills.

Charlie Bell Scholarship for Future Leaders

This scholarship rewards successful candidates with a contribution of up to $30,000 towards tuition fees for their chosen undergraduate or postgraduate study.

For more information, visit: mcdonalds.com.au/charlie-bell-scholarship

Financial Markets Lab

This state-of-the-art learning facility will enable you to: access analysts’ international company reports; construct investment portfolios, and stress-test their performance in specific market conditions; observe live market performance; and monitor real-time financial news feeds, via the Refinitiv Eikon database.

eChallenge New Venture accelerator program

If you have a novel, practical business idea to design and develop, our 12-week Australian eChallenge accelerator program provides the ideal platform. Specialised workshops guide teams through the entire new-venture process: from initial opportunity assessment through to marketing, finance, intellectual property, developing a viable business model, and pitching to potential investors.

As a University of Adelaide student, you may even be able to undertake it as part of your degree.

MARY KELLY
Bachelor of Innovation and Entrepreneurship

“ The student community and extracurricular activities on offer makes it so much more than just a place to study. I’ve been able to explore my passions and learn from a variety of professionals with leadership opportunities that have prepared me for my career.”
A career with currency

Our modern economy depends on good accounting. We need experts who understand and can explain the financial and social business environment to others. Accountants advise people through good times and bad. They dig for financial truth, consider consequences and work out the best path forward.

What will you do?

Our Bachelor of Accounting teaches fluency in the language of business and finance. You will:
- explore economic concepts, theories and analytical techniques
- learn the fundamentals of financial and management accounting
- understand auditing and taxation in depth
- study economics, business mathematics and business law
- consider technology’s role and ways to build positive client relationships
- work on industry projects and internships.

Where could it take you?

Accounting graduates are always in demand and enjoy both stability and variety. You might work with a charity, in education or for the government. Perhaps you’ll become chief financial officer at a company or manage budgets in the sporting world. You could even unmask financial deceptions as a forensic accountant.

Professional accreditation

Upon completion of the Bachelor of Accounting, you’ll be eligible to apply for associate membership to either Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand or CPA Australia. To achieve full membership, both bodies require an additional program of study and a stipulated length of work experience.

Boost your market potential

Like to solve problems and crunch numbers? Ready for responsibility and money management? By combining corporate know-how and accounting expertise, you’ll be equipped to make the right decision every time.

What will you do?

Our Bachelor of Accounting and Corporate Finance is more than just a vocational qualification. We support your growth as both a business professional and an individual. You will:
- explore financial and management accounting, auditing and taxation
- study management theory, business maths, business law and economics
- learn how financial managers make investment and financing decisions
- understand how financial instruments and capital markets are used to enhance returns and manage risks
- build critical thinking, communication and leadership skills.

Where could it take you?

You’ll graduate career-ready and able to adapt to the demands of a global economy. You might secure a job as a company auditor or investment consultant. You could track the expenses involved in corporate mergers and acquisitions. Perhaps you’ll take on a managerial role in a flourishing organisation.

Professional accreditation

Upon completion of the Bachelor of Accounting and Corporate Finance, you’ll be eligible to apply for associate membership to either Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand or CPA Australia. To achieve full membership, both bodies require an additional program of study and a stipulated length of work experience.

Venture across borders

Understanding global contexts is more important to business than ever before. Economies are growing and changing. The world is increasingly interconnected. Our Bachelor of Business (Global) is flexible and designed to prepare you for a range of careers in business, industry or government.

What will you do?

A key feature of the degree is a compulsory international study experience. Your time overseas will change your frame of reference and educate you as a global citizen. You’ll also:
- explore economics, business mathematics and business law
- study statistics and the science of decision-making
- learn about cross-cultural communication and negotiations
- consider social responsibility and technology’s role in business
- build real-world skills through the University’s corporate links.

In second-year you’ll specialise in an area of interest, chosen from:
- Accounting
- Corporate Finance
- International Business
- Management
- Marketing
- Entrepreneurship (minor only).

Where could it take you?

You could select the perfect imports as an international buyer. You might travel from one multinational branch to another (all expenses paid), supporting managers and boosting productivity in company branches. Perhaps you’ll find yourself negotiating trade deals with UK companies post Brexit.

Deliver organisational success

Business leaders have vision. They take responsibility and tackle challenges. They devise solutions, drive progress and unite people to pursue common goals.

What will you do?

Our Bachelor of Business Management fast-tracks your self-confidence and initiative, priming you for leadership in today's business world. You will:

• learn to effectively manage people, resources and projects
• explore business finance and commercial law
• study strategic planning and the science of decision-making
• consider client relations, ethics and the role of technology
• build real-world skills through internships, industry projects and entrepreneurial challenges.

We also encourage learning in a wide range of specialised areas, adding diverse skills to your resume.

Where could it take you?

You could plan sales strategies for a video gaming enterprise or negotiate cross-border trade deals. You might design, launch and lead your own space travel start-up. Perhaps you’ll keep a gourmet coffee franchise on track or protect company data in a cybersecurity role.

MAXIMISE YOUR VALUE

Want to strengthen your business skills with financial expertise?

Relationships and vision are vital for business management. However, the ability to understand, analyse and use financial information is what makes a trusted business leader.

What will you do?

Our Bachelor of Business Management and Accounting gives you a significant advantage in today's business world. You will:

• study strategic planning and the science of decision-making
• understand the fundamentals of financial and management accounting
• take core courses in commercial law, data analytics and marketing
• learn to effectively manage people, resources and projects
• build real-world skills through internships, industry projects and entrepreneurial challenges.

We also encourage learning in a wide range of specialised areas, adding diverse skills to your resume.

Where could it take you?

You could keep company money matters above board as an auditor. You might spend your time liaising with investors. Perhaps you’ll find creative ways to cut costs as a budget analyst, corporate treasurer, or financial controller.

Hit the ground running

The University of Adelaide is ranked highest in South Australia for Business and Management*. We’re ready and excited to support your unique pathway to high-level employability and a confident, business-savvy future.

What will you do?

Our Bachelor of Commerce is flexible and progressive. We place a strong emphasis on critical thinking, adaptability and communication skills.

In first-year you’ll complete a range of core business and management courses. In second and third-year you’ll choose up to two major areas of study—or a major and up to two minors—to accommodate different career interests. Areas include:

• Accounting
• Accounting and Corporate Finance (double major)
• Corporate Finance
• International Business
• Business Management
• Marketing
• Entrepreneurship (minor only)
• Project Management (minor only).

Professional accreditation

Upon completion of the Bachelor of Business Management and Accounting, you’ll be eligible to apply for associate membership to either Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand or CPA Australia. To achieve full membership, both bodies require an additional program of study and a stipulated length of work experience.

Get your foot in the door

Our one-year Diploma in Business sets you up for understanding and working in the business world. It’s a great introduction to business for students who want to explore the topic before undertaking the full bachelor degree.

The diploma also acts as a recognised qualification should you choose to come out of the Bachelor of Commerce after one year of learning.

What will you do?

• Explore principles of marketing, management, business law, accounting and business statistics.
• Build communication skills for business contexts.
• Apply your learning to real-world scenarios.
• Work with researchers and peers in a small group discovery experience.
• Benefit from collaborative problem-solving, reflections and online discussions.

Where could it take you?

If you want to study further, and successfully pass the diploma, you’ll be guaranteed entry into a range of University of Adelaide business degrees, plus gain credit for the first year. You could also seek employment in entry level business positions, perhaps as a marketing assistant, assistant broker or sales manager.

Be an asset wherever you go

Supporting a corporation’s growth takes intelligence and skill. Corporate financiers balance funds and predict the best moves to make. They problem-solve, make decisions and take responsibility.

What will you do?

Our Bachelor of Corporate Finance builds professional skills, knowledge and discipline. You will:
• learn how financial managers make investment and financing decisions
• understand how financial instruments and capital markets are used to enhance returns and manage risks
• study management theory, business maths, business law and economics
• work on industry projects and internships
• build critical thinking, communication and leadership skills.

If you want to focus your skill set you can also minor in specialised business areas—from Public Administration to Marketing and Entrepreneurship.

Where could it take you?

You’ll graduate ready to thrive in the corporate realm. You might build and maintain links with investors. You could negotiate billion-dollar mergers and acquisitions. Perhaps you’ll end up securing a top-paying job on Wall Street or in Hong Kong’s bustling Central business district.

Connect with your world

Economists study the world through the analysis of decision-making in households, businesses and broader society. They examine details and put pieces together, always striving to understand the ‘big picture’.

Armed with these insights, economists can give expert advice on business strategy, understand the background behind the news, influence public policy for a better world, and make informed personal financial decisions.

What will you do?

Our Bachelor of Economics sets you up to understand and shape our economy’s future. You will:
• learn how to break down complex issues into resolvable questions
• discover advanced techniques for analysing and managing data
• study how maths and statistics are applied to economics
• explore matters relating to the growth and stability of the whole economic system
• investigate social issues such as inequality, housing affordability, environmental management and depleting natural resources.

There are also opportunities for professional internships in Adelaide, other Australian cities and overseas.
Where could it take you?
Economics graduates go on to all sorts of exciting careers. You might be a high-stakes stockbroker, banker, or financial planner, a data analyst in a government agency or health economist with a pharmaceutical group. You could be a demand planner in a big wine company. Perhaps you’ll end up working in journalism, foreign affairs or mobile game development.

Double Degrees
Economics can be studied successfully with other degrees (as a double degree or a concurrent degree) to broaden your career scope. Options include:
• Bachelor of Arts with Bachelor of Economics
• Bachelor of Economics with Bachelor of Finance
• Bachelor of International Relations with Bachelor of Economics
• Bachelor of Teaching (Secondary) with Bachelor of Economics
• other complementary areas like law, psychology, mathematics and computer science.

For economic innovators
Aspire to be a leader in business, policy or research?
The Bachelor of Economics (Advanced) is a uniquely structured and specialised degree for students who want to stand out in their field.

What will you do?
Our advanced degree emphasises research and high-level analytical skills. You will:
• interact with and learn from eminent researchers, notable economists from abroad, and high-ranking economists practising in the private and public sector
• have the opportunity to partner with an academic mentor who’ll support and encourage your intellectual development
• access three unique courses specifically designed for high-achieving students
• benefit from small-group work, special activities and events with distinguished visitors.

Note: You must maintain a GPA of 5.0 or you’ll be required to transfer to the Bachelor of Economics. Conversely, if you initially enrol in the Bachelor of Economics you may be eligible to transfer into the advanced degree after one, two or three semesters if you achieve a high enough GPA.

Where could it take you?
You might specialise in maths and statistics and become an econometrician, working in logistics and modelling transport infrastructure. You could write pioneering policy around education, taxation or mental health. Perhaps you’ll use behavioural economics to encourage people to recycle, or research the potential impacts of a universal basic income.

Concurrent degrees
You can also expand your career options even further by studying the Bachelor of Economics (Advanced) concurrently with another degree, the Bachelor of Laws for example.

For more information, contact a faculty student adviser at: professions@ask.adelaide.edu.au

Scholarship
The John Creswell Scholarship awards $5,000 to the commencing student with the highest overall selection rank who enrols in the Bachelor of Economics (Advanced) program at the University of Adelaide. This scholarship is open to Australian citizens or permanent residents of Australia.
BACHELOR OF FINANCE

Professional accreditation
Some Bachelor of Finance courses provide opportunities for gaining affiliate membership of the Financial Services Institute of Australia. They also cover material relevant for entry to the Chartered Financial Analysts and Financial Planning Association. Additionally, completing certain courses will enable you to obtain partial compliance with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission RG146 (tier 1 Compliance) in the areas of generic knowledge derivatives and securities.

Double degrees
- Bachelor of Economics with Bachelor of Finance
- Bachelor of Mathematical and Computer Sciences with Bachelor of Finance
- Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) (Chemical, Civil, Environmental, Electrical and Electronic, Mechanical) with Bachelor of Finance.

Concurrent degrees
You can study the Bachelor of Finance concurrently with our:
- Bachelor of Arts
- Bachelor of Commerce
- Bachelor of Economics
- Bachelor of International Development
- Bachelor of Laws
- Bachelor of Media
- Bachelor of International Relations
- Bachelor of Criminology
- Bachelor of Sociology.

If you’d like to undertake a concurrent degree you should initially enrol in just one of those degrees, and apply for the second during your first year of study.

Blaze your own path
Entrepreneurs and investors see the world for what it could be. In an ever-changing landscape, they take the risks to start up new businesses and social ventures. Successful entrepreneurs are savvy, resilient and well-connected. At the University of Adelaide, we invest in your potential.

What will you do?
Our Bachelor of Innovation and Entrepreneurship gives you knowledge, access to networks and a growth mindset for success. You will:
- hone your ability to identify, assess and develop opportunities
- understand financial planning and management
- learn the business modelling behind innovations’ commercialisation
- start your own venture in the University’s ThincLab Incubators
- get hands-on help from experienced mentors and professionals.
There are also unique opportunities for study in linked ThincLab incubators in Singapore and France. In these locations you can:
- apply international perspectives and strategies to your ventures
- tap into supported international learning
- access different cultures, networks and opportunities.

Where could it take you?
You might shine a spotlight on an unexpected renewable energy source. You could explore ecotourism or virtual reality. Perhaps you’ll invest in a world-changing approach to everyday healthcare. This degree is also suitable if you want to be a corporate intrapreneur, driving innovative products and services for employers. You could even find alternative career pathways in government and not-for-profit sectors.
BACHELOR OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Get what it takes to go global
Want to pursue a career in international business management? More and more business experts are learning to operate at the global level. This requires a greater grasp of the commercial world and the skills to adapt in foreign environments.

What will you do?
Our Bachelor of International Business is all about analytical thinking and international awareness. You will:
• take foundational courses in business statistics, commercial law, management, marketing, accounting and finance
• study international business environments, operations and law
• learn about managing and marketing across cultures
• consider corporate responsibility in a global context
• develop decision-making and leadership skills.
You can also head off on an overseas study tour during your degree.

Where could it take you?
You’ll emerge ready to use your global insights in a range of career roles. You might work across continents for a major multinational. You could be a trade analyst or developer. Perhaps you’ll help establish new international ventures and partnerships.

BACHELOR OF MARKETING

An instinct for influence
Marketing is an essential part of any organisation. It’s about attracting consumers, building great relationships and improving brands. Marketing experts are strategists, innovators and communicators. They craft irresistible experiences, delight customers and create value.

What will you do?
Our Bachelor of Marketing is highly future-oriented. You will:
• understand buyer mind-sets and behaviour
• learn modern marketing theories and research techniques
• develop business knowledge in accounting, finance, management, business statistics, and commercial law
• explore the role of customer insights, strategy, market offers and brand management
• build the advanced analytic, decision-making and people skills needed for leadership roles.

Where could it take you?
Our graduates go on to all sorts of exciting marketing careers. You could shape the future of global food, fashion or tech brands. You might analyse consumer data and suggest sales strategies based on your research. Perhaps you’ll innovate on social media, connect with partners in public relations or represent the athletic elite as a sports agent.

BACHELOR OF PROJECT MANAGEMENT

For variety and challenge
Project management is about delivering successful results for business, government and the community. It requires passion, resolve and vision. Project managers are expected to take charge of complex tasks and keep things on track. They recruit people, coordinate activities, organise and problem-solve.

What will you do?
Our Bachelor of Project Management gives you the skills and knowledge to excel in the professional realm. You will:
• research project management practices and concepts
• assess and manage risk in a wide variety of project scenarios
• build the soft skills needed to motivate and lead teams
• develop specific knowledge in an industry or field of your choice
• study ways of fostering creativity and innovation.

Where could it take you?
Opportunities for qualified project managers are increasing at pace. You could guide a defence project or manage sporting events. You might work on the global stage guiding community projects in less developed countries. Perhaps you’ll lead an IT team in Silicon Valley or oversee the development of a multi-storey tower in Dubai.
There are few disciplines more challenging or satisfying than law. The deep analytical thinking developed from a law degree is sought-after not only in the legal profession, but in many other areas of employment, including commercial and government sectors.

Moot court
Adelaide Law School’s moot courtroom gives you the chance to build crucial advocacy skills throughout your degree. Your time spent here—participating in debating, moot competitions and practical training—will thoroughly familiarise you with real-world court processes and procedures.

Adelaide Law School free legal clinics
You can also gain valuable professional experience while giving back to the South Australian community at one of our free legal clinics. Run by University of Adelaide students under the direction of qualified legal practitioners, our free services play a vital role in providing legal support to those in society who ‘fall through the gaps’.

Next Steps program
As part of our career-readiness program, you’ll explore career options, enhance networking skills, and build links with potential employers and colleagues.

Exchanges and short study tours
During your law degree you’ll have the opportunity to study overseas at a leading university and have it count towards your qualification. You could undertake a short study tour of just a few weeks, complete a specific program over a month or two, or soak up the culture for a semester or full academic year.

At the Adelaide Law School we have partnerships with eight leading overseas universities:
- University of Alberta (Canada)
- University of Copenhagen (Denmark)
- University of Mannheim (Germany)
- University of Montreal (Canada)
- Pace University (USA)
- KU Leuven (Belgium)
- Shanghai Jiao Tong University (China)
- Peking University (China).

Scholarships
The Dr Duncan Memorial Scholarship is open to University of Adelaide Bachelor of Laws students undertaking their first, second or third year of study. To apply, you must be a citizen of Australia or New Zealand, permanent resident of Australia, or hold a permanent humanitarian visa, and be studying full-time as a Commonwealth-supported student.

For further information, visit: scholarships.adelaide.edu.au/scholarships/undergraduate/faculty-of-professions/dr-duncan-memorial-scholarship

Internships
You’ll have many opportunities to undertake industry internships or Clinical Legal Education courses during your studies. These provide an exciting chance to gain real legal experience, while simultaneously completing a three-unit law elective.

Balance the scales of justice
Studying law is about understanding our society and the power structures within it. Why do we have the laws we do? How have they evolved? How should we interpret them? Whether you want to uphold, use or change the system—law can take you just about anywhere.

What will you do?
Our Bachelor of Laws can be completed as a single degree, double degree or as part of a combined degree program. You will:
• explore legal concepts, processes and methods within common law principles and legal methodology
• build ethical reasoning, policy-based analysis and oratory skills
• gain rigorous knowledge of the areas of law necessary to undertake legal practice
• go deeper by choosing from our broad list of electives
• learn from legal professionals, former judges and international academics
• undertake internships in areas such as Public Law, Native Title Law and Human Rights Law
• form connections through the University’s Lex Salus, Next Steps and Law Students’ Society events.

Where could it take you?
Law can take you all over the world. You might advocate for asylum seekers or be a voice for the environment. With a little additional training (see ‘Professional accreditation’ below) you could guide innovating businesses as an in-house counsel or lead legal reform drafting new bills in government. Perhaps you’ll go on to prosecute criminals, or preside in a Supreme Court.

Professional accreditation
Our Bachelor of Laws is accredited by the Legal Practitioners’ Education and Admission Council in South Australia; and provides the academic foundation for admission to legal practice throughout Australia.
To be admitted to practise in Australia, however, you must complete further practical legal training.
In South Australia, we—the University of Adelaide—together with the Law Society of South Australia, provide this additional training through our Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice. But if you intend to seek admission to practise elsewhere, you should seek advice from the admitting authority in the relevant jurisdiction.
Upon graduation from the Bachelor of Laws and completion of the Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice, you’ll be eligible to be admitted to the Supreme Court of South Australia (with a restricted practicing certificate). Once admitted, you can then apply for admission in any other Australian jurisdiction.

STUDY THE GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN LEGAL PRACTICE

Practical legal training at Adelaide Law School
Whether you’re a local, interstate or international law graduate, the University of Adelaide’s Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice (GDLP) will give you the practical skills and accreditation required to practise law in Australia.
The Adelaide GDLP
• Flexible—intensive, weekend and after-hours study modes and selected online courses are offered
• Connected with industry—our networks give you significant opportunity to connect with legal professionals in South Australia and build ongoing relationships
• Accelerated—the program can be completed in just 20 weeks
• Strong on advocacy—you’ll undertake advocacy training with senior practitioners in the South Australian District Court
• Placement a priority—should you have difficulty finding your own placement we’ll step in to help you make it happen (many firms exclusively accept our school’s students).

Scholarships
The University of Adelaide has a range of scholarships available to students from a variety of backgrounds and academic levels. Comprehensive information about scholarships, and how to apply, can be obtained by contacting us (refer below for details) or visiting the scholarships website: adelaide.edu.au/scholarships

Student services and amenities fee
Students are charged an annual student services and amenities fee (SSAF) to assist with the funding of student services and amenities at the University. In 2020, the SSAF amount for full-time students was $308, and for part-time students it was $231. Fees may increase in 2021. Eligible students may defer this fee to an SA-HELP loan. For further information about the SSAF and SA-HELP visit: adelaide.edu.au/student/finance and select ‘Other Fees and Charges’.

Additional costs
Students may be required to pay for specialist equipment, reading materials, etc. Students are advised not to purchase any equipment until they receive their faculty/school handbook, available during orientation. For more information on other program-related fees and charges, visit adelaide.edu.au/student/finance and select ‘Other Fees and Charges’.

Adjustment factors
SATAC centrally administer the South Australian Universities Adjustment Factors Schemes. The two schemes are the SA Universities Equity Scheme and the SA Language, Literacy and Mathematics Adjustment Factors Scheme. For more details, visit adelaide.edu.au and search ‘adjustment factors’.

Degree intake
Many undergraduate degrees will allow students to begin study in February or July. Please refer to the ‘Entry Requirements’ section for individual degrees on Degree Finder (adelaide.edu.au/degree-finder) to check whether midyear entry is available. Where Degree Finder states ‘subject to availability’ applicants should contact Ask Adelaide (refer below for details) to check whether midyear entry is available.

KAURNA ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We acknowledge and pay our respects to the Kaurna people, the original custodians of the Adelaide Plains and the land on which the University of Adelaide’s campuses at North Terrace, Waite, and Roseworthy are built. We acknowledge the deep feelings of attachment and relationship of the Kaurna people to country and we respect and value their past, present and ongoing connection to the land and cultural beliefs. The University continues to develop respectful and reciprocal relationships with all Indigenous peoples in Australia, and with other Indigenous peoples throughout the world.
