Services for Australia Awards Scholars

The University of Adelaide is proud to work with Australia Awards to welcome scholars to our campus. Our programs develop students knowledge and skills to drive change and contribute to development outcomes in their home countries.

The University has a dedicated Australia Awards Student Contact Officer (SCO) who is available to provide advice and assistance on campus, if you have any concern or queries:

Ms Niranjala Seimon

Student Contact Officer
Level 6 Hughes Building
The University of Adelaide
SA 5005 Australia

Ph: +61 8 8313 3505

Email: niranjala.seimon@adelaide.edu.au

International Student Support

international.adelaide.edu.au/life-on-campus

The SCO is based in the International Student Support office.

The International Student Support office provides orientation and ongoing support for international students at the University of Adelaide. It ensures all international students gain a positive and successful experience here by working closely with student groups, faculties and the University administration.

Staff members will support you in your transition to the University through:

- Global IQ Connect helps domestic and international students develop their cultural intelligence (CQ), thus gaining valuable skills to manage culturally diverse settings successfully and increase their employability
- Language and Cultural Exchange Program provides an immersive student experience, helping them connect with diverse cultures and languages.

Other University support services include:

- Initial temporary accommodation and assistance
- Visa matters including compliance requirements
- Overseas Student Health Cover information (OSHC)
- Mental health and spiritual support services
- Academic and Professional Development workshops and social activities
- A vibrant student community with more than 170 clubs at the University of Adelaide - enjoy an existing or new hobby or cultural connection.

Academic Support

Introductory Academic Program

The Introductory Academic Program (IAP) is designed to provide you with a range of skills necessary to make a smooth transition to and enhance performance in your academic program. The IAP is compulsory for you, and you must arrive prior to its commencement.

The IAP will be four to six weeks duration and takes place prior to the commencement of your academic program. The first week of the IAP includes some orientation activities to help you settle into the University and Adelaide.

Our programs develop students knowledge and skills to drive change and contribute to development outcomes in their home countries.

Writing Centre

adelaide.edu.au/writingcentre

The Writing Centre presents seminars to advance academic skills such as reading and research skills, presentation skills for tutorials and seminars, essay writing and report writing skills. You can access one-on-one mentoring sessions to develop your academic writing skills. Learning Guides are also available to help you develop your skills.

Maths Learning Centre

adelaide.edu.au/mathslearning

The Maths Learning Centre (MLC) helps you develop Maths skills needed in your courses, including statistics. The MLC provides bridging courses, seminars, workshops and online resources. You can come without an appointment for one-on-one assistance through its drop-in service.

Succeed@Adelaide

adelaide.edu.au/student/success/succeed-at-adelaide

Succeed@Adelaide is a peer to peer program that connects you with peers from your faculty. All commencing students will be contacted by our student Succeed@Adelaide Ambassadors at important times in their first semester to share their experiences and pass on the advice and support that helped them when they transitioned to university.

Bringing your family to Adelaide

Scholars with families

Adelaide has a lot to offer for students with families. As a clean and convenient city, with lower cost of living than most capital cities in Australia, and access to excellent public schools, families of Australia Awards holders are able to enjoy their time here.

international.adelaide.edu.au/life-on-campus/support-services#students-with-children

If you are planning to bring your family to Adelaide, you are strongly advised to arrive on your own for at least the first six months. Once you have settled into your new living and learning environment and have found long-term accommodation, you will be in a better position for your family to join you in Adelaide.

The Australia Awards Scholarship does not provide any financial or other support for your dependants. If you intend to bring your children to Adelaide, please be aware that there are costs associated with childcare and schooling in Adelaide.

Childcare

adelaide.edu.au/childcare

Quality childcare services are available at the University's North Terrace and Waite campuses, and at many childcare centres throughout Adelaide.

Education for children of Australia Awards scholars

Adelaide has a range of excellent public and private schools. As an Australia Awards scholar, your children can attend public schools and pay the same fees as local students.

It is compulsory for all children in Australia aged between six and sixteen years to attend school, with most starting school at the age of five.

Enrolment Eligibility

Your children have the option of attending Adelaide's public or private schools. To be eligible for this:

- approach International Student Support for the 'Letter of Authority' document from the Department for Education and Child Development (DECD)
- verify your student and scholarship status to DECD.

Intensive Primary English Course

You can enrol your child in the Intensive English Language Program (IELP) for primary aged students or the New Arrivals Program (NAP) for secondary aged students.

These programs help students by providing intensive English language support from specialist teachers of English as an Additional Language or dialect; a modified curriculum for school aged children; activities with the school and local community; and bilingual classroom support.

Classes are small and students generally stay in the program for up to one year until they are ready to join main stream classes.

To find out more about primary and secondary schools offering intensive English language support in Adelaide, please visit:

sa.gov.au/topics/education-and-learning/international-students/english-language-support/learning-english

Health insurance and accommodation

Health Insurance

The Australian Government requires all international scholars and their families to have health insurance in Australia through the Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) scheme. The OSHC helps pay for medical care which you may need when you are studying in Australia.

Your scholarship covers your OSHC (Single). The University will arrange an OSHC (Single) membership for you with Medibank Private—the University's preferred provider for OSHC. You will receive your OSHC membership card on arrival.

Medibank have a dedicated multi-lingual team who can answer your questions about your OSHC. If you have any questions regarding your OSHC you can contact Medibank directly.

- speak to with staff from Medibank directly on campus, near Ask Adelaide, from Monday to Friday between 10:00am and 4:00pm;
- by calling Medibank on 134 148 in Australia or overseas +61 3 9862 1095;
- email OSHC@medibank.com.au
- visit nearest Medibank store – Adelaide Location: 65 Grenfell St, Adelaide SA 5000

Accommodation

The University of Adelaide provides students access to a dedicated Accommodation Service. The professional team of accommodation specialists are available to assist the university community (24 hours a day, 7 days per week) to provide general accommodation information, tenancy support and to apply for a place in University-managed student accommodation.

adelaide.edu.au/accommodation

The University of Adelaide has a wide range of accommodation options, including student hostels and share-housing:

University-managed accommodation and residential colleges

These options offer many advantages as they are close to campus and offer furnished rooms with electricity, gas and water bills included in the rental fee.

Private rentals

If your family is accompanying you to Australia, private rentals or apartments are generally the most suitable option. It is advisable for you to arrive in Adelaide alone first to arrange suitable family accommodation to last the duration of your program.

Temporary Accommodation

Our Accommodation Service can arrange temporary single accommodation for a week upon your arrival.*

* The service must be arranged before your arrival.

“ Being a recipient of the Australia Awards Scholarship in The University of Adelaide (UoA) for the past 4 years has been a valuable and exciting journey. As a PhD candidate, the AAS and the UoA have provided the greatest support not only to my academic study but also extracurricular activities and personal life.

Throughout my candidature, I have had opportunities to present my research at both national and international conferences, as well as attending many professional development activities. These would not be possible without the SAS funding provided by the AAS. As part of the UoA, I also had the privilege to participate in industry mentoring program (IMNIS), 3-Minute-Thesis and Visualise Your Thesis competitions - which have given me great experience in public speaking, science communication and opportunity to broadening my professional networks.

Studying abroad in the midst of pandemic has been difficult but having great people around me, the AAS and the UoA, have made things much better and I am very grateful to be an AA scholar.”

Yoko Brigitte Wang (Indonesia)
PhD (Medicine and Surgery)

“It was a whole new experience for my wife, two children and I given the metropolitan environment here. But we enjoyed it - you can easily find your way around and people greet you on the streets. Adelaide is a really good environment to study in, with the University located in the city.

The Master of Arts has given me a broader understanding of the media landscape and what I have done as a journalist. With the mentoring and research skills gained, I am looking forward to pass the knowledge on to journalists in my home country and the Pacific region. ”

Priestley Humphrey Habru (Solomon Islands)
Master of Arts

“The education alone has transformed me into a better individual and more skilled professional. It has brought me new skills, improved my critical thinking, and exposed me to new connections that are meaningful towards my career. Because of the scholarship, I had the chance to lead TEDxUniAdelaide and meet interesting speakers – some were Rhodes Scholars and University of Adelaide alumni; the former Chief Entrepreneur of South Australia; an Aboriginal Arts curator; and many accomplished students from our university.”

Jerald Laparan (Philippines)
Master of Applied Innovation and Entrepreneurship

“I am so grateful to have received this scholarship because I have gained knowledge on how to become more professional and a good teacher. It has encouraged me to contribute to the development of my country, particularly through my teaching profession. I have missed out on some opportunities due to the pandemic, such as international conferences on education. However, I did a six-month online course on speech to improve my English pronunciation, which was an excellent learning experience. I also did online courses in LinkedIn learning through the University of Adelaide. These courses have also led me to be more professional in performing my duties and responsibilities as a teacher. They have changed my perspective to be more open-minded and creative.”

Umbelina Cardoso (Timor-Leste)
Master of Education

Kaurna acknowledgement

We acknowledge and pay our respects to the Kaurna people, the original custodians of the Adelaide Plains and the land on which the University of Adelaide's campuses at North Terrace, Waite, and Roseworthy are built. We acknowledge the deep feelings of attachment and relationship of the Kaurna people to country and we respect and value their past, present and ongoing connection to the land and cultural beliefs. The University continues to develop respectful and reciprocal relationships with all Indigenous peoples in Australia, and with other Indigenous peoples throughout the world.
