THE UNIVERSITY
of ADELAIDE

University of South Australia

Adelaide University a new university for South Australia

We're planning for an exciting new future.

The new Adelaide University, which is targeted to be launched in January 2026, will combine the strengths of the University of Adelaide and the University of South Australia (UniSA) to offer contemporary curriculum aligned to industry and enterprise, provide more flexible and accessible ways to study, and aim to deliver the best in research, student experience and graduate outcomes.

A new 'Adelaide University' is subject to legal and regulatory approvals.

Keep up-to-date and discover more at adelaideuni.edu.au

It's my pleasure to welcome you as you start this exciting new chapter in your life at the University of Adelaide.

Starting university for the first time can be scary but remember that you are not alone. Your tutors, lecturers, course coordinators and peers are here to support you every step of the way.

University is a time for growth and to explore new passions, interests, and ideas. So don't be afraid to put yourself out there, ask questions or try something new. You may face challenges throughout your studies, but each challenge presents an opportunity for you to grow. Embrace your failures as stepping stones to success and approach every setback as a chance to learn and improve. Celebrate your wins—big or small—and make the most of your time at UoA by embracing all the opportunities presented to you, studying hard and most importantly—enjoying it!

We are so happy to have you join our community and can't wait to see all that you achieve.

Kurna acknowledgement

We acknowledge and pay our respects to the Kurna people, the original custodians of the Adelaide Plains and the land on which the University of Adelaide's campuses at North Terrace, Waite, and Roseworthy are built. We acknowledge the deep feelings of attachment and relationship of the Kurna people to country and we respect and value their past, present and ongoing connection to the land and cultural beliefs. The University continues to develop respectful and reciprocal relationships with all Indigenous peoples in Australia, and with other Indigenous peoples throughout the world.

Welcome from the Vice-Chancellor and President

Congratulations on your first day at the University of Adelaide. It is wonderful to welcome you as part of our community.

We are South Australia's top-100 global university, with an outstanding reputation. Our research continues to make a difference in the real world, providing solutions to the big challenges of today.

You are now part of a university with more than 171,828 graduates from 150 countries around the world. Our education and research are aligned with industry and employer priorities, providing many opportunities for students to be learning alongside global companies.

Your education at the University of Adelaide will give you the foundation to follow your passion and pursue a career you love. In a few years' time you will be job-ready graduates, well prepared for the workforce of the future.

Take full advantage of everything the University has to offer, both academically and outside the classroom. The friends and networks you make will ensure your time here will be some of the most rewarding years of your life.

The University of Adelaide has a remarkable history, but we also have a great future—one that you are now part of.

Professor Peter Høj AC
Vice-Chancellor and President

Your rights and responsibilities

Student expectations

As a student, you have a right to expect the following in the course of your study at the University of Adelaide:

- To receive a high quality and intellectually stimulating education.
- To receive timely and accurate information in your dealings with the University.
- To be respected and treated fairly and equitably.
- To study in a safe and supportive environment.

Student responsibilities

As a student, you are expected to fulfil the following responsibilities in the course of your study:

- Be honest, work hard and treat others with courtesy and respect.

- Be aware of and comply with policies and procedures.
- Keep informed—and keep your university informed.
- Represent your university with integrity and professionalism.

See the full Student Charter and all student related policies at adelaide.edu.au/student/affairs

Safer campus community

The University of Adelaide is committed to providing a safe and respectful environment for all members of our community. Find out how you can contribute to creating a safer campus community at adelaide.edu.au/safer-campus-community

Consent matters

Every member of our community has the right to feel safe, welcome and respected. We are committed to making our campuses and our community safe—and free from sexual harassment, indecent assault and rape.

adelaide.edu.au/safer-campus-community/training/consent-matters

Student grievances

The Student Grievance Resolution Process is intended for use by all students who have a grievance against an academic or administrative decision or determination made by a member of University staff. The University will ensure that grievances are dealt with fairly and in accordance with the principles of natural justice.

Types of grievances

- Academic decisions—appeal a decision, which involves the exercise of academic judgment about a mark or grade, or finding of academic dishonesty.
- Administrative decisions—appeal a decision or administrative matter or complaint about a University service or facility.

You can find full details of the process on the Student Grievance Resolution website at ua.edu.au/student/grievance

On campus

On campus

The University of Adelaide has three main campuses in Adelaide.

Student hubs are located at each of these locations, including the Adelaide Health and Medical Sciences (AHMS) building. The student hubs offer an inspirational place for students to meet, study, make social connections and exchange ideas.

Getting to campus

A range of transport options are available to students for commuting to and between campuses. The University encourages the use of sustainable transport such as walking, cycling, public transport and carpooling.

Cycling

adelaide.edu.au/sustainability/sustainability-on-campus/bike-parking-security

Secure bike sheds are located at North Terrace, Waite, AHMS and Rundle Mall Plaza. To gain access to the bike sheds, complete the online application form and access will be added to your student ID card. Showers and change rooms are available at various locations around campus including Hub Central.

Shuttle bus

adelaide.edu.au/infrastructure/services/transport

An inter-campus shuttle bus operates between the Waite, Roseworthy and North Terrace campuses. Shuttle buses also operate between Roseworthy campus and the Gawler train station, and between the North Terrace campus and University accommodation in the CBD after hours. Visit the website to view timetables.

Public transport

adelaidemetro.com.au

The Adelaide CBD is readily accessible by public transport including several free options. Visit the website to plan your journey.

Car parking

cityofadelaide.com.au/transport-parking/parking/parking-in-the-city

There is limited car and motorbike parking available on our campuses. For students attending our North Terrace campus in the Adelaide CBD, there are multiple paid car parking facilities located within a short walk to campus. Visit the website for more information on parking in the city.

North Terrace campus

Waite campus

After-hours security escort

(walking or by vehicle)

An after-hours security escort service is available outside of the shuttle bus operating hours and from your building to the security office, or to another location on campus (or adjacent the campus boundary). Please call the security office on 8313 5990 or from one of the emergency phones to arrange.

University Health Practice

universityhealthpractice.com.au

A medical clinic is available on the North Terrace campus. Students are charged a reduced out-of-pocket fee and international students are billed in accordance with their Overseas Health Cover Plan.

Childcare

adelaide.edu.au/childcare

The Adelaide Campus Children's Centre and Waite Campus Children's Centre are operated by an independent, not-for-profit association, Adelaide University Childcare Services Inc, in premises provided by the University.

Support services

Starting university for the first time can be both daunting and rewarding. The University of Adelaide offers many free support services to help you succeed within your degree and beyond.

Key terms

The University uses terms that you may not have heard before. If you see a term that you aren't sure of, you can check the University glossary at adelaide.edu.au/study/glossary

Academic tools and study support

ADAPT

(Any Device Any Place any Time)
adelaide.edu.au/technology/your-tools/academic/adapt

ADAPT provides University staff and students with the ability to remotely access a large suite of applications and desktops without needing to use a Virtual Private Network (VPN). Staff and students can easily work offsite using ADAPT to connect to the application and systems they need to do their work without having to outlay any licensing or software costs.

Academic integrity skills

adelaide.edu.au/student/success/academic-integrity-for-students/upskill

The University takes an educative approach to academic integrity. To understand about different types of academic misconduct and how to avoid them you can check out the Upskill page.

Academic integrity peer-led support

adelaide.edu.au/student/academic-skills/academic-integrity-for-students

The Academic Integrity Ambassadors are here to help all students understand academic integrity by sharing their own experiences at peer-led workshops and events.

English Assist Program

adelaide.edu.au/student/academic-skills/english-assist-program

The English Assist Program is exclusive to international undergraduate and postgraduate coursework students in their first semester of study. The program has a range of activities to choose from, including self-paced lectures and modules, and weekly tutorials and small group workshops run by specialist language tutors. No preparation is required for these activities.

Library services for students

ua.edu.au/library/howdoiguides

You'll find self-help guides on searching effectively, using databases, referencing styles, subject specific resources and more.

Maths Learning Centre (MLC)

ua.edu.au/mathsllearning

At the Maths Learning Centre, we help all coursework students learn and use mathematics and mathematical skills in order to succeed at university, especially if you are meeting maths for the first time.

MyUni support

<http://myuni.adelaide.edu.au>

MyUni is your online learning environment. You can access course content, submit your assignments and receive assignment feedback.

Peer Assisted Study Sessions (PASS)

ua.edu.au/pass

PASS are weekly study sessions, run by experienced students and open to everyone enrolled in supported courses. Work together with other students to understand key concepts, excel in your courses, maximise your study time, and make new friends.

Succeed@Adelaide

The Succeed@Adelaide team are current students, so we know the challenges and successes you will face. We will contact you during your university journey to share our experiences and pass on the advice and support that helped us as we transitioned to university.

Studiosity (online study help)

ua.edu.au/student/success/studiosity

Feeling overwhelmed, stuck on a study question or not sure where to even start with an assignment? Studiosity is a free after-hours online study help tool available through your enrolment in MyUni.

Wirltu Yarl Academic Mentoring Program

adelaide.edu.au/wirltu-yarlu/current-students/mentoring-program

The Wirltu Yarl Academic Mentoring Program is a tailored tutorial program that provides culturally appropriate and course specific mentoring for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students enrolled at the University of Adelaide at no cost.

Writing Centre

ua.edu.au/writingcentre

The Writing Centre aims to help all students, no matter their skill level, in their development as writers through in person, one-on-one consultations. We support all students through any and all stages of their writing process, from initial idea to final revision, and everything in between.

Personal help*Accommodation Service

ua.edu.au/accommodation

As a University of Adelaide student, you have access to a wide range of University-managed student accommodation options. We also provide support and advice regarding living situations for all students, regardless of your current accommodation.

Chaplaincy

ua.edu.au/chaplaincy

All students are welcome to contact a Chaplain for support, irrespective of personal belief, philosophy, life view or faith.

Counselling Support

ua.edu.au/counselling

Student Life Counselling Support is free, confidential and available to all enrolled students seeking to address issues that may be affecting your study and life.

Available weekdays 9am to 5pm.

Phone: 8313 5663

After hours support is available through the University Crisis Line:

Phone: 1300 167 654

Text: 0488 884 197

Disability Support

ua.edu.au/disability

The Disability Support team provide personalised advice and assistance to students with a disability or health condition. Disability Advisors work with students to identify Reasonable Adjustments in their studies as well as alternative exam arrangements.

Elite Athlete Support

ua.edu.au/eliteathletes

We offer Elite Athlete Support to assist eligible student athletes. By providing a flexible and responsive approach to study, the University supports students to balance their sporting and academic commitments. Find out if you are eligible and register online.

Wirtlu Yarlu Aboriginal Education

Wirtlu Yarlu Aboriginal Education

Student life

Wirtlu Yarlu Aboriginal Education provides services and support for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students that complement the wide range of services offered by the University.

The Student Services Officers (SSOs) coordinate student resources and events, working alongside Faculties and broader University services to enhance and support the student experience at the University of Adelaide. Every SSO is allocated to a faculty. They provide tailored support and apply a cultural and holistic lens throughout the student's journey at the University.

Student Services Officers

The Wirtlu Yarlu Student Services Officers (SSO) Team coordinate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander student resources and events. After enrolment, all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students are assigned to a Wirtlu Yarlu SSO. The team works alongside each faculty and broader services at the University to enhance and support the student experience of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students.

Cultural Advisors

Kaurna Elder, Uncle Rod O'Brien is Wirtlu Yarlu and the University of Adelaide's Cultural Advisor. He has the fundamental role of providing culturally appropriate support to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students and staff. His experience, knowledge and pride in his Aboriginal heritage and culture give our students a sense of belonging and safety.

Accommodation

The Accommodation Service at the University of Adelaide understands that living in an environment that supports study priorities and lifestyle is important. Finding the right accommodation is closely tied to student academic success. There are a few accommodation options available, including:

- student housing (Housing SA)
- subsidised housing
- Tika Tirka

- independent residential colleges
- The University of Adelaide Village
- Mattanya Student Residences
- Roseworthy Residential College
- private rentals.

For further tailored assistance and information, please speak to one of our helpful Student Services Officers at Wirltu Yarlu Aboriginal Education.

Wirltu Yarlu Academic Mentoring Program (WYAMP)

The free Wirltu Yarlu Academic Mentoring Program (WYAMP) connects Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students with academic mentors matched to their field of study. WYAMP strives to enhance and develop students' professional, personal, and academic strengths. Our mentors can assist with coursework, referencing, exam revision and broader study and research skills.

Study space

Wirltu Yarlu Aboriginal Education provides a culturally safe study space for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students both on the main campus and in the Adelaide Health and Medical Sciences building. Equipped with all your study needs, the space located in the Wirltu Yarlu offices is set up to provide a culturally safe and calm space to aid the learning process of our students.

Student kitchen

A fully catered kitchen is available for all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students at the University of Adelaide. Located within the Wirltu Yarlu offices, students can find a variety of free meals and snacks to help them power through their studies. The kitchen is stocked daily and provides a culturally safe space for our students to relax and enjoy a meal and the company of other students. Swipe card access is required for this space.

Counselling Support

Student Life Counselling Support provides free and confidential counselling to students around all issues affecting their studies and life. Wirltu Yarlu has an Aboriginal counsellor available to provide tailored support for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students.

Financial support

Wirltu Yarlu knows the financial stress that can come with undertaking tertiary study. We can provide reliable information on the financial support available for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students at the University of Adelaide, including scholarships, government payments, bequests or trusts, and paid cadetships. Study costs can vary depending on the program of study chosen. All University of Adelaide degrees are ABSTUDY-approved.

Cadetships

Wirltu Yarlu's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cadetships Program is a key feature linking engagement, research, and employment across the University. Cadets are placed within a working environment aligned with their career aspirations. This immersive experience engrosses students in their chosen fields and provides a stable income while studying.

Our flexible program can be tailored to the student's career or research goals. To make an appointment or to discuss your needs, please contact Wirltu Yarlu, and we'll put you in touch with the right people.

Scholarships

There are many scholarships offered at the University of Adelaide. All Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students are encouraged to apply. Wirltu Yarlu has some specific scholarships and grants available. The Student Services Officers can provide information about scholarships, grants, and cadetships.
