ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge and pay our respects to the Kaurna people, the traditional custodians whose ancestral lands we gather on. We acknowledge the deep feelings of attachment and relationship of the Kaurna people to country and we respect and value their past, present and ongoing connection to the land and cultural beliefs.

WELCOME FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR AND PRESIDENT

Congratulations on your first day at the University of Adelaide. It is wonderful to welcome you as part of our Community.

We are South Australia's truly global university, with an outstanding reputation. Our research continues to make a difference in the real world, providing solutions to the big challenges of today.

You are now part of a University with more than 148,000 graduates from more than 140 countries around the world. Our education and research are aligned with industry priorities, providing many opportunities for students to be learning alongside global companies.

Your education at the University of Adelaide will give you the foundation to follow your passion and pursue a career you love. In a few years' time you will be job-ready graduates, well prepared for the workforce of the future.

Take full advantage of everything the University has to offer. Your time here will be some of the greatest years of your life.

The University of Adelaide has a remarkable history, but we also have a great future – one that you are now part of.

Professor Peter Hoj AC
Vice-Chancellor and President

YOUR RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Student expectations

As a student, you have a right to expect the following in the course of your study at the University of Adelaide:

- To receive a high quality and intellectually stimulating education
- To receive timely and accurate information in your dealings with the University
- To be respected and treated fairly and equitably
- To study in a safe and supportive environment

Student responsibilities

As a student, you are expected to fulfil the following responsibilities in the course of your study:

- Be honest, work hard and treat others with courtesy and respect
- Be aware of and comply with policies and procedures
- Keep informed – and keep your University informed
- Represent your University with integrity and professionalism

See the full Student Charter and all student related policies at www.adelaide.edu.au/student/affairs

Student grievances

The Student Grievance Resolution Process is intended for use by all students who have a grievance against an academic or administrative decision or determination made by a member of University staff. The University will ensure that grievances are dealt with fairly and in accordance with the principles of natural justice.

Types of Grievances:

- Academic decisions – appeal a decision, which involves the exercise of academic judgment about a mark or grade, or finding of academic dishonesty
- Administrative decisions – appeal a decision or administrative matter or complaint about a University service or facility.

You can find full details of the process on the Student Grievance Resolution website at www.ua.edu.au/student/grievance

Safer Campus Community

The University of Adelaide is committed to providing a safe and respectful environment for all members of our community. Find out how you can contribute to creating a safer campus community at www.adelaide.edu.au/safer-campus-community

Consent Matters

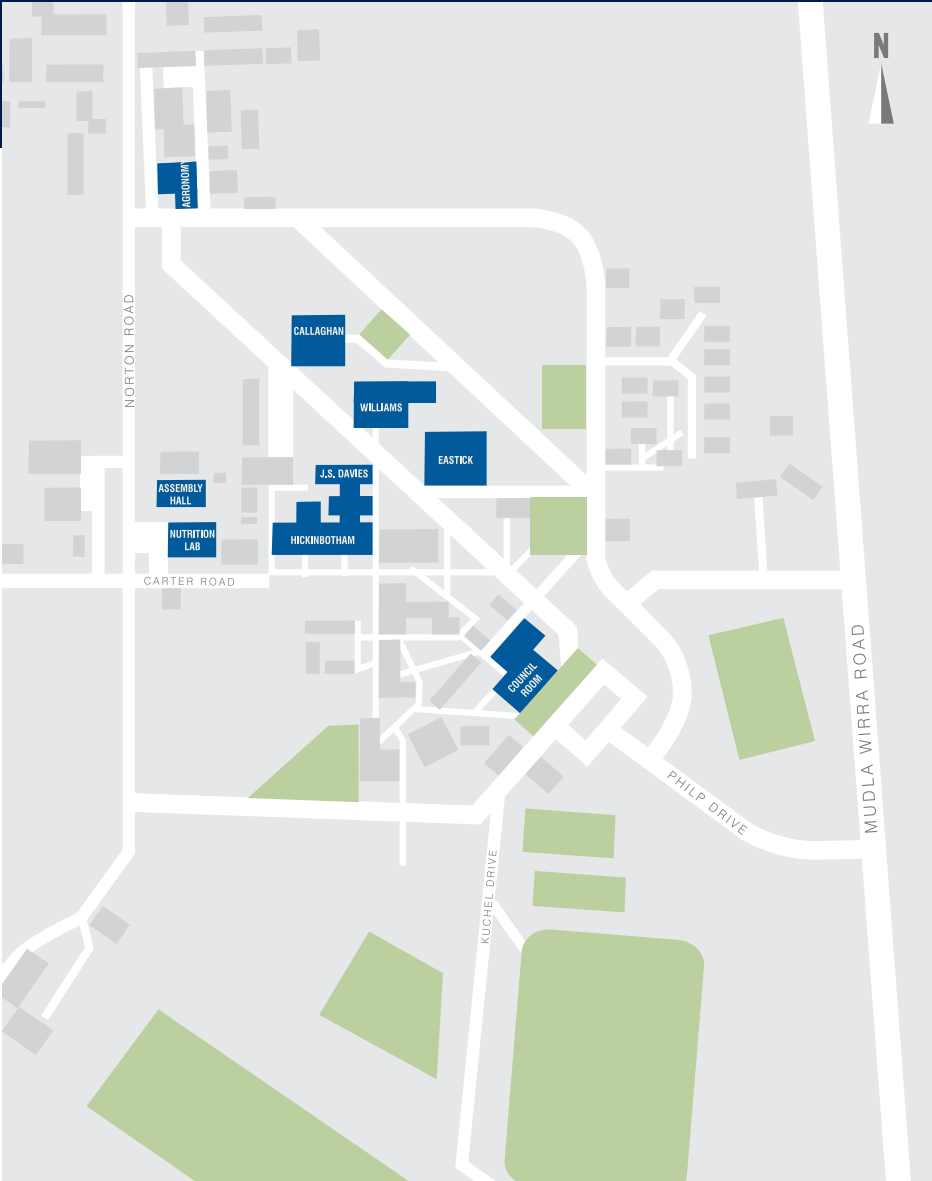

Every member of our community has the right to feel safe, welcome and respected. We are committed to making our campuses and our community safe – and free from sexual harassment, indecent assault and rape.

Exploring Adelaide

Adelaide is a friendly and multicultural city, offering a real sense of community as well as a range of attractions and entertainment.

Adelaide is a relatively small city which is easy to get around on foot, bike or public transport. There's always something happening, including plenty of free events, so start exploring: <https://explore.cityofadelaide.com.au> www.southaustralia.com/whats-on

Arrival Checklist

There are a few things that you will need to arrange after you arrive in Adelaide. It is a good idea to organise these as soon as possible, so that once Uni begins you are ready to concentrate on your studies.

Find everything you need when you first arrive in Australia at <https://international.adelaide.edu.au/life-on-campus/arrival-checklist>

Get Connected

Join the plethora of social programs, clubs, sports and volunteering opportunities at the University to meet students from all over the world and build connections.

CommuniTEA

CommuniTea gatherings are free and run weekly during semester teaching weeks, giving you the chance to have a casual catch up with other students.

International Peer Mentors

The International Peer Mentor Program, is an award-winning program which comprises both domestic and international student volunteers working together to assist new international students from the time they arrive in Adelaide, attend Orientation and throughout the semester.

ADVICE FROM CURRENT STUDENTS

Make friends with your classmates early on! It's always helpful to have a study buddy or someone else to
read over your work.
- Naomi

Not everything has to be full speed ahead!
Make mistakes,
change your mind,
smell the roses!
- Mia

Take a walk along the River and enjoy
seeing our University
from a different perspective
- Leila

Sometimes it may take you
two degrees to find out what you are into.
- Bryan

Never lose sight of the 'why'.
Why did you come here?
Why are you studying
what you are studying? ...
The 'why' will keep you
motivated when the 'hows',
the 'whats' and the 'whens'
get hard.
- Lisa

Seize all that UoA has to offer and get out there!
Join clubs, play sports and take opportunities to learn
outside of the classroom,
you'll benefit so much more
from it.
- Rhys
