

The Aurora Homepage

Login to Aurora by visiting www.aurora.adelaide.edu.au and then adding your University credentials

The Homepage is where you land after logging in.

MY ACTIONS will be displayed at the top of your page as either a list, or in carousel view (depending on which view you select).

Each item has a link that takes you to the section in Aurora where tasks can be completed, including:

- Setting up your search settings, and optimising name-based searches
- Adding author identifiers, such as ORCID, Scopus ID
- Claiming scholarly and creative works
- Depositing publications to Adelaide Research and Scholarship

The screenshot displays the Aurora homepage for Professor Ada Lovelace. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the University of Adelaide logo and the user's name 'Ada Lovelace'. Below this is a 'MY ACTIONS (2)' section containing two items: 'Add your ORCID ID' and 'Add Scopus IDs'. To the right of the actions is a profile card for Professor Ada Lovelace, including her name, affiliation, and email address. Below the profile card are four activity sections: 'Publications' (11 journal articles, 1 conference paper), 'Grants' (11 manual grants), 'Professional activities' (1 award and achievement, 1 board, 1 committee, 1 community engagement, 1 consulting / advisory, 1 expert witness, 1 event participation, 1 industry partnership, and 3 more), and 'Teaching activities' (2 supervision activities excluding me..., 3 mentoring). Each activity section has '+ ADD NEW' and 'VIEW ALL' links.

Your research activities are displayed across the bottom of your Homepage, including PUBLICATIONS, GRANTS, PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES and TEACHING ACTIVITIES. Data types in each activity section are active links. Click on any one to go to that activity type or add manual records by selecting + ADD NEW.
