

Joint AAWE-ICABR Workshop

On

TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION IN THE WINE INDUSTRY

Feudi di San Gregorio (Avellino), June 24th, 2011

Saturday, June 23rd, 2012	Arrival of participants in Naples and transfer to Feudi di San Gregorio ( www.feudi.it ). Get together, Social Dinner
Sunday, June 24th, 2012
Wine Workshop
09.00-09.30	Welcome Address: Carl Pray, Rutgers University Julian Alston, University of California Davis
Morning Sessions: Technology and Innovation in the Grape and Wine Industries
09.30-10.15	Abhaya Dandekar, University of California Davis	Rootstock Based Management Systems in Vineyard Crops
10.15-11.00	Alan Olmstead, University of California Davis	Historical Overview of Innovations and New Technologies in Grape Production
11.00-11.30	Coffee Break
11.30-12.15	Karl Storchmann, New York University	Effects of Climate Change on the Wine Industry
12.15-13.30	Lunch Break
Afternoon Sessions: Technology and Regulations in the Wine Industry
13.30-14.15	Kym Anderson, University of Adelaide	Is Georgia the Next 'New' Wine-exporting Country? The roles of traditional vs new technologies and trade alliances
14.15-15.00	To be identified	Topics on Technological Innovation, Wine Regulations and Trade
15.00-15.15	Concluding Remarks
15.15-16.00	Visit of Feudi di San Gregorio
16.15	Departure for Ravello
19.00	ICABR Welcome Drink in Ravello	